Jeanne Drath

2026 BER/CCOR
PRESIDENT

TO OUR MEMBERS,

There is so much excitement to share that I couldn't wait for the next magazine. First, for those who may have missed it on our members Facebook page, NAR has officially approved our name change to Coconut Coast Organization of REALTORS® (CCOR). That is a major milestone for our organization, and we are thrilled to be moving into the next phase as we finalize the remaining state and IRS filings and move closer to making it all official.

We are also a little over a month into Realtor.com+, and we are proud that BER was there from the ground floor of this launch. We've been actively gathering member feedback, sharing resources, and helping shape the experience so it becomes a product our members value and use with confidence. It's exciting to be part of something this early and to help ensure our market has a voice in how it grows.

We're also strengthening our team to better serve you. We're excited to welcome Mariam as our new Director of Member Experience, while Jenna moves into her new role as Director of Executive Operations to support Meighan so she can spend more time out of the office meeting members where they are. Growing our team in this way gives us more capacity to support members learn in this way gives us more capacity to support members, improve processes, and create a stronger day-to-day experience across the organization.

On top of that, we are launching Communities through your Member Portal, giving committees and groups a better way to stay connected in one place. You'll be able to communicate directly inside your groups, access agendas and shared documents, keep track of relevant resources, and make collaboration easier without adding yet another login to your password app. Realtors® and Affiliates, when you have a few moments, please fill out your profile so members can connect with you more easily. Stay
